1903 Paris-Madrid Trail

The following comes from a supplement with Le Petit Parisien published before the race.

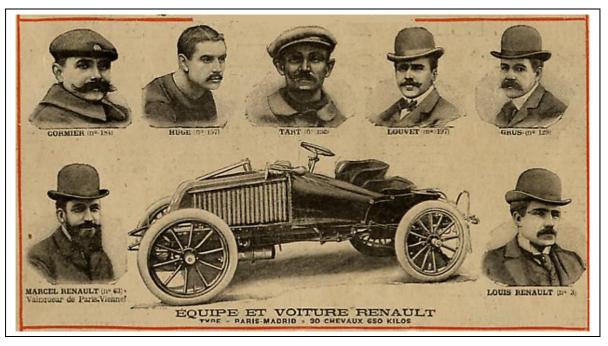

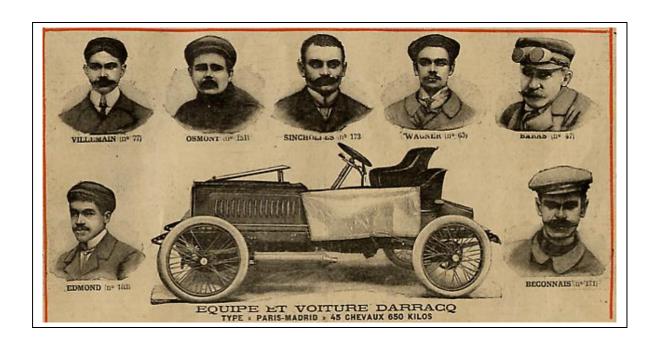

All 1903 Daimler cars with an F-head (intake over exhaust) were called "Idiot", using the word in the sense of the antiquity, meaning the unique, the inimitable one, not referring to silliness.

The following cartoon was in the Delphos Daily Herald, 27^{th} June 1903, pg 3
